No. 30268/ ACSR&DM, Date 12.sep.2022

To

All Collectors.

Sub: Resumption of Camp Courts in Tahasil.

Madam/Sir,

Revenue & DM Department has undertaken many e-Governance initiatives in order to enable Citizens to avail the services of Department from anywhere and anytime. Also, Department has reached doorstep of Citizens to deliver various services such as updated Record of Rights and various types of certificates through Rajaswa Rath. However, case disposal of various revenue cases require physical presence of different Stakeholders in Revenue Court as mandated by the extant rules. Camp Court was being held by Tahsildar/Additional Tahasildars prior to onslaught of Covid-19 pandemic for hearing and disposal of cases at the doorstep of Citizens. The practice of Camp Courts at different RI Circles, Gram Panchayats and Revenue Villages reduces the distance between Government Offices and Citizens, enforces good governance and puts onus on the Tahasils to deliver services within the timeline stipulated by ORTPS Act in a fair and transparent manner.

In view of above, you are requested to instruct Revenue Officials in general and Tahasildar/ Additional Tahasildar in particular to resume the practice of camp court at the earliest, preferably from 15.09.2022, unfailingly. All Tahasildars/Additional Tahasildars shall be instructed to hold Camp Court in 2/3 days in a week in their allocated RI Circles so as to touch every Gram Panchayat within their jurisdiction in every month. This will be reviewed by Nodal Officers of the Department assigned to various districts and also in District Revenue Review. This may be treated as Extremely Urgent.

Yours faithfully,

12/09/2022
